My name's Jack, and I had a really nice time last weekend. I went to watch a concert. Lots of bands were playing. My friend Max came with me. My friend Ben didn't come – he was busy. My favourite band was at the concert! They're called Underground and they played really well. The concert wasn't very far from my home. It was in a big park. It was difficult to get there by bus, so my dad drove us in his car, luckily. The music was great, and at the end, Max bought a poster and I got a T-shirt. We were really happy because it was fantastic!
